September 2012

President's Letter – Rich NN3W

On behalf of the PVRC officers and Trustees, let me be the first to welcome you all back to another Fall contest season. I know that it's still 85 degrees outside and there are thunderstorms rumbling about, but that is soon about to change. The kids will be back to school; the leaves will begin to turn color; the autumnal equinox will return, and with it, a return of fall HF propagation. And with it, the busiest season in amateur radio contesting – both on and off the air.

The month of September gives us all the chance to make repairs that have become painfully necessary from all those summer storms, to begin major operating desk upgrades, and to remove the cobwebs from your VFO knobs. A slew of PVRC 5M qualifying events arrive this month with the ARRL September VHF QSO Party, the WAE SSB, and the CQWW RTTY contests all taking place. These events represent great opportunities for you all to test out your repairs, make needed adjustments, and score lots of 5M points in our revamped 5M program – all in anticipation of the major contesting push that begins in early October (including the major CQWW tests and, dare I say it, November Sweepstakes).

September will also start the kick-off for PVRC as it relates to the candidacy and election of officers and trustees for the 2013 annual cycle. You see, an even more important election than the one taking place between Barack Obama and Mitt Romney is happening: that of the election of officers and leaders for the club. We'll promise that there will be no robo-calls, no requests for surveys, no PAC attack ads, and no requests for voter ID. So, if you're in the mood to take the reins of the club or to have a major say in the day to day operations of the club, please consider running for a position.

I'm Rich DiDonna, NN3W, President of the Potomac Valley Radio Club, and I have approved this message.

“Beat PVRC ... But Not Too Badly” John Troster, W6ISQ

(Reprinted with permission from November 1971 QST; copyright ARRL.)

“HEY, MR. PRESIDENT, I wanna make-a-motion”

“Ya can’t make-a-motion 'cause I ain’t called the meeting to order yet.”

“Call it.”

“The meeting will please come to ord . . .”

“Mr. President. I make-a-motion that our club beat Potomac Valley Radio Club in the Sweepstakes this year.”

“Huzzah . . . hear. hear . . . 'bout time. . . yeeaaaabhh . . .”

“Every year we get beat. We never even come close. It’s humiliatln.”

“And how do you think you’re gonna beat the champs? They got all these ionospheric sounders that tells ‘em when to change bands and what antennas to use. And they got computers that keep their logs . . . and band scanner receivers that lock onto Sections they ain’t worked yet. . All comes over their automatic two-meter RTTY link. How ya gonna beat that kind a operation?”

“Hmmm . . . and how you figure to score more points?”

“More members, that’s all. All we gotta do is recruit us a thousand members and overpower them.”

“Maybe we could fake a call for an emergency ARRL Board Meeting over Sweepstakes weekend. At least that would get W4KFC outa there.”

“Mr. President, I got a better idea. How about us to recruit fellas from the Southern California Club to help out”

“That’s against the rules.”

“Hoolldd on . . . wait a minute . . . maybe ya gut something there. If we add our two scores together . . . might help . . . hmmm. All we gotta do is figure how to make them Southern California fellas Bony Fidle members.”

“We could charge ‘em all a dollar . . . aww . . . naw.”

“How about we make ‘em free Honorary Members so we don’t have to charge em.”

"Hey, that's it. Hoorraayy, we make 'em Honorary Members."

"Don't sound legal,"

"Sure it's legal! Show me where in the rules it says that specifically and absolutely a Honorary Member ain't allowed."

"Yeeeahh ... watch out PVRCs . . . We're a comin' . . . ahhh ... maybe."

"You bet. Maybe. You add our two club scores together from last year and you won't even have enough points to heat Murphy's Manglers . . . let alone the PVRCs ."

"Who's Murphy's . . . ahhh . . . what?"

"Err . . . Murphy's .. ahhh .. Manglers?? Naw, it's Murphy's Marauders, .. nooo it's Murphy's Maulers . . . Manhandlers. . . You're right the first time . . . it's Manglers! Who . . . what are they?"

"They're back up in the Vermont hills somewhere . . . nooo, in Connecticut . . . naw, they're all over W1 and W2 . . . they got strong ties around Hartford, I think . . . oooohhhh . . . real top secret group, I hear . . . somebody was sayin' it's some rich fella named Murphy . . . he buys 'em all their QRO gear if they sign their scores over to him . . . they gotta call him 'Mr.' Murphy too . . . they was nothin' a couple a years ago and now they're scarin' old PVRC himself."

"Them Manglers could give us real trouble. Maybe we oughta go back to recruiting lots more Honorary W6s and . . . and . . . maybe Washington and Oregon . . . and Nevada . . . and VE6 and VE7 . . . like the whole west Coast. Ya think we could scare old PVRC with . . . ahhh . . . with . . .?"

"Wouldn't even scare the Murphs."

"Wait a minute . . . QRX men. Maybe if we start joining up too many Honorary Membership fellas, old PVRC might get mad and join up with the Manglers . . . then we'd be finished for sure."

"Naw, they wouldn't do that. it's against the rules to . . . ahhh . . . besides old Murph's boys is comin' on fast and strong and they'd like to beat the PVRCs all alone."

"In that case maybe we oughta join the PVRCs and try to beat the Manglers . . . haw . . ."

"Aw, come on fellas, them two clubs would never join . . . never . . . ahhh . . . well, I don't think . . . but they might get together if they was to find out we was scanuviatin" around out here . . . hmmm. Just in case, maybe we'd better plan for the worst. We gotta get us a wedge in there somewhere to keep them two clubs apart so they won't join up and whup us good. We need a wedge in there . . . between . . . the wedge . . ."

"THAT'S IT . . . the wedge . . . like a keystone . . . we recruit them fellas with the keystone QSL, . . . Frankford Radio Club!"

"Hooray . . we'll automatically make all the Frankford Radio Club fellas our free Honorary Members for the Sweeps weekend . . .Hooray."

"Whhooopiiiee . . . That oughta do it this year. We finally shorted out old PVRC's coax."

"Ahhhh. Mr. President. I wanna make another motion,"

"Make it."

"I make-a-motion that we don't beat the PVRCs too bad this year and get 'em mad at us . . . because next year maybe we'll want to make them free Honorary Members to join up with us to beat Mr. Murphy's Manglers."

"Yeah, let's be good sports about it . . . all in favor that we should take it easy on the PYRCs this year. . ."

(Ed. Note – I remember reading this in QST as a 14 year old Johnny Novice! It is kinda amazing how prescient W6ISQ was about coming technology in contesting.)

It's Never too Early to Think About Sweepstakes...

From Ken WM5R:

A while back, I began researching some of the changes made over the years in the ARRL and Canadian sections used in the Sweepstakes (mostly using the online QST archive at <http://www.arrl.org/gst/>). I learned quite a lot, but I still have some gaps in my timeline about when certain changes were made.

The first "All-Section Sweepstakes" was held in 1930 and there were 68 sections. In addition to the sections we know today, there were some interesting differences. Minnesota was originally two sections - Northern Minnesota and Southern Minnesota. Utah and Wyoming were originally one section. The Philippines were a section (part of the Pacific Division). But the most interesting section was probably Georgia-South Carolina-Isle of Pines. The Isle of Pines is an island off the coast of Cuba (today known as Isla de la Juventud or Isle of Youth). After the Spanish-American War was concluded in 1898, the sovereignty of the island remained in dispute, claimed by both the United States and independent Cuba. The U.S. Senate ratified a treaty recognizing Cuban sovereignty over the island in 1925. I have no idea why the Isle of Pines was still being used in the section name as of 1930.

Here are my notes for the last 40 years:

1 Jan 1973	Eastern Florida (EFL) deleted Western Florida (WFL) deleted Northern Florida (NFL) created Southern Florida (SFL) created	76
1 Oct 1979	Canal Zone (KZ5) deleted	76
1 Jan 1987	West Texas (WTX) created from counties previously assigned to North Texas (NTX) and South Texas (STX)	75

Aug(?) 1988 West Indies (WI) deleted Puerto Rico (PR) section created Virgin Islands (VI) section created Guantanamo Bay assigned to Virgin Islands section	76
6 Feb 1989 Washington (WA) deleted Eastern Washington (EWA) created Western Washington (WWA) created	77
1 Jan 1996 Northern New York (NNY) created from counties previously assigned to Western New York (WNY)	78
1 Apr 1996 Two counties (Herkimer and Otsego) assigned to the newly-created Northern New York (NNY) section are returned to the Western New York (WNY) section	78
1 Jan 1998 Newfoundland-Labrador section (NL) created, removing that province from the Maritimes (MAR) section	79
15 Jan 2000 West Central Florida (WCF) created from counties previously assigned to Northern Florida (NFL) and Southern Florida (SFL)	80
12 Sep 2012 Ontario (ON) deleted Greater Toronto Area (GTA) created Ontario East (ONE) created Ontario North (ONN) created Ontario South (ONS) created	83

Contesting Can Get You A Free Trip to the Azores – John K3TN

Are You Ready to Fly to Azores for Free by Making Nine QSOs?

from DX-World.net

Yes indeed, those of you willing to spend 24 hours or less on the radio are eligible to participate in an Azores lottery for two all-paid packages to the beautiful Azores Islands in the Atlantic, completely free of charge. The project is organized by the Azores-Finland Friendship Consortium in partnership with the Amateur Radio Associations of the Azores Islands and supported by the Azores Promotion Agency (ATA) and Azorean Airlines (SATA).

Not many people know that the Azores consist of nine populated islands, stretching over a distance of 602 km (305mi) from East to West, next to USA and Europe. And it is not widely known that the Azores have their own airline (SATA) flying to each island, in addition to many destinations in Europe and North America. Each island has its own characteristics and its own blend and alone qualifies for your visit there. While these islands count for a single DXCC entity, they offer three (3) IOTA groupings.

With this unique AZORES 9 ISLANDS HUNT, an invited international group of amateur radio operators together with resident Azores amateurs will be activating the nine islands, offering an opportunity to the world to contact these islands all at once over one weekend.

Activity Weekend

Saturday, September 29, 1200 UTC to September 30, 1200 UTC (24 hours). These stations will be active starting Friday, September 28 as soon as they become operational.

Those making a QSO with at least 5 different islands will have a corresponding number of tickets placed into a lottery for a free trip to the Azores (e.g. if you have QSOs with 7 islands, you will get 7 lottery tickets). Additionally, the first 25 operators making QSOs with all 9 islands will be eligible for a second lottery. The free trips are from the closest airport served by SATA; including flight, accommodation and transfers.. During or immediately after the weekend, the logs will be posted on Club Log to display your band/mode slots. The lottery will be drawn on October 15, 2012.

QSL Cards

All QSOs will be confirmed through the bureau network with special full-color cards. Direct QSL requests via Jose Melo, CU2CE.

'Radio Man' keeps history alive – Eric W3DQ

A fat and sassy black cat purrs in John Allen's lap. Relaxing in his favorite chair, Allen's fingers vanished into the silky fur as he stroked his cat while listening to the Big Band sounds coming through a 1930s radio. With its warm wood finish and the soft yellow glow of light from the dial, the vintage radio is as soothing as the thin shadows in the room. There's just enough static in the broadcast to be convincing.

Truth is, Allen, an industrial physicist, listens to an authentic 1930s broadcast on a tape transmitted to his antique radio from a small unit just around the corner in his kitchen. As for the transmitter, it was a clearance item that came from Toys R Us. Sure enough, the scientist found a bargain in the toy store.

Stacked neatly in his living room are a dozen or so radios from the past. The sets are piled several deep. Other are stored in his shop, tucked tightly on shelves...

The Editor's Last Word – John K3TN

My introduction to serious contesting was back in the mid-1980's, operating at Frank W3LPL's multi-multi: lock yourself in Phyllis and Frank's basement for 48 hours, logging on paper, using paper dupe sheets and listening to voice multiplier spots on 147.42. PVRicers communicated on the 147.00 repeater and "f2f" at the local meetings and hamfests – or not at all! I did the newsletter back then and had to get my girlfriend (now wife) and Andy W3XE and Larry W3GN (now SKs) to help fold, staple, stamp and mail the printed copy.

The change in technology 25 years later is pretty impressive – we communicate constantly through the PVRC reflector, Facebook, texting, various RSS feeds and newsgroups, etc. During the contest, the logging software and feeds like the RBN are constantly feeding us information.

All this technology has greatly impacted contesting, for better or worse – but I think mostly for better. I was reminded of this last week when WA3SEE and I hiked up the Appalachian Trail to Compton Peak in Shenandoah National Park to throw a 20m dipole up in the trees and use his K1 to activate the site as part of the "Summits on the Air" program. Reaching the peak at 2900 feet, we could see thousands of acres of land – and not a single cell tower. We had no connectivity, which meant we could not announce our operation on the SOTA Watch "cluster" (self-spotting is not verboten there). We had to CQ and CQ (with 4 watts and a dipole at 20 feet in the trees...) for a long time until someone heard us and worked us – and, thankfully spotted us on SOTA Watch. Finally some rate kicked in – hooray for technology! Of course, we were logging on paper but I am looking at an Android or iPad tablet for future electronic logging...

One thing that hasn't changed over the years is that the value of the newsletter is based on the contributions from the members. Thanks to W3DQ and WM5R for submissions this month. If you have anything, send it to me here. If you don't like to write, or don't have the time to write, send in a photo or a link of anything you've found interesting
